

Position Title: Travelling School Assembly Presenter

Duration: 12-15 month Contract (opportunity to transition to Full Time position upon completion)

Start date: April 1st, 2026

Compensation: $40,000-$45,000 salary with benefit package

Location: Based in the Calgary area and includes extensive travel across Western & Northern Canada (with potential travel to US and other regions within Canada)

Ready to Take the Stage — and the Open Road?

Imagine getting paid to see the country, performing high-energy shows that inspire thousands of kids to protect the planet.

Earth Rangers is looking for a dynamic, confident, adventure-loving presenter to join our Calgary-based team and bring our nationally acclaimed School Assembly to life in communities across the region.

If you love performing, connecting with young audiences, road trips, and meaningful work — this role was made for you.

Background

Earth Rangers is the kids' conservation organization, committed to instilling environmental knowledge, positivity, and the confidence to take action in children.

Since 2004, we've inspired over 2.1 million elementary school students across Canada through our live, high-production-value school assemblies. The program is offered free to schools and is designed to be unforgettable. Our shows are energetic, interactive, and purpose-driven, consistently receiving rave reviews from students, teachers, and administrators.

With growing demand across Western Canada, we are expanding our Calgary-based team to bring this experience to even more communities.

What You'll be Doing - Perform. Travel. Inspire.

During the school year, you'll travel throughout Western and Northern communities delivering one or two live assemblies per day.

You will:

- Drive to schools across Western & Northern Canada
- Load, unload, set up, and tear down show equipment
- Deliver high-energy, interactive presentations to large student audiences
- Represent Earth Rangers in schools and communities
- Serve as an ambassador for youth empowerment and conservation

Travel stretches may last several weeks at a time and occur multiple times throughout the school year. All travel expenses outside Calgary are covered.

In the summer months, your focus will shift to:

- Learning and rehearsing the new presentation
- Professional development and content refinement
- Flexible scheduling while preparing for the upcoming tour season

When there are no scheduled shows:

- You may support light content review, quality assurance, or administrative tasks
- If no additional tasks are assigned, those days are considered free days

Why This Role Is Special

- See parts of Canada most people never experience
- Build confidence and professional presenting skills
- Make a measurable impact in the lives of thousands of kids
- Be part of a nationally respected organization
- Travel with purpose
- Join a mission-driven team that values energy, positivity, and growth

This role is ideal for

- Emerging performers
- Educators who love being on stage
- Gap-year adventurers
- Theatre grads
- Outdoor enthusiasts who want meaningful travel
- Anyone who thrives on connecting with people and being on the move

What We're Looking For

Core Qualifications:

- Comfortable speaking to a large audience
- Experience acting, delivering presentations, and/or facilitating educational programs with a young audience
- Ability to set up and adjust A/V equipment (training will be provided)

Position Requirements

- Extensive travel
- Valid driver's license
- Criminal record check
- Ability to lift 50lbs and capable of meeting the physical demands of the position

You'll Thrive if You are

- Energetic and engaging
- Confident and adaptable
- Excellent with kids
- Passionate about the environment
- Excited by travel and new experiences
- Professional and brand aligned

What You'll Gain

- Paid travel across Western & Northern Canada
- Benefits package
- Professional presentation and touring experience
- Growth opportunity into a full-time position
- The chance to inspire the next generation of conservation leaders
